Northwestern . . .

. . . also growing, and causing others to grow. Northwestern strives to educate the whole person; academically, physically, spiritually, and socially. These dimensions of a student's life are developed and integrated to transform him into a trained and equipped servant of the Lord.

"His divine power has given us everything we need for life and godliness through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness." (II Peter 1:3)

Learning . . .

Though most students won't call themselves serious bookworms, their underlying goal to pursue wisdom can be seen at all hours. Whether it's a midnight cram session, a late night popcorn-typing conference, or an afternoon in the library, students gain wisdom by doing their best with the Lord's gifts.

Much work has been done this past year to insure that students of the future continue to receive quality education while retaining the Christian perspective. The addition of Maranatha Hall has provided extra classroom space and better facilities for music and drama. Other advances have been made in the curriculum, with the prospect of program revisions and additions.

*"If any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him."
(James 1:5)*

Reaching . . .

What does it mean to increase in stature? It means to grow and develop one's physical abilities. It means to discipline one's body. It means hard work.

Growth means sacrifice and even a little bit of pain, but every Christian must remember to whom his body belongs.

"Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore honor God with your body." (1 Corinthians 6:19-20)

Becoming . . .

"Why the title 'Becoming'? That answer, my friend, is simple. I hope to address the greatest issue that each one of us faces in the year ahead: to become more like Christ. You see, each one of us is a becoming. We are always becoming something. We may be becoming more intelligent, more apathetic, more conformed to the standard of this world, but we are becoming.

"If we want to become more like Him, then we must spend quality time with Him. We must fix our eyes on Him so carefully that we begin to imitate Him. It is not an easy challenge, but it is the best challenge.

"Are you willing to pay the cost of becoming more like Christ? It may mean a great deal of sacrifice and even times of painful growth. It is my prayer that you will accept that challenge and use it as a measuring rod for your spiritual walk. Remember, we are always becoming. The question is simply, what do you want to become?"

— Dave Jensen, NWSA president
September, 1981

"For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified." (Romans 8:29-30)

... more like Christ

People . . .

That's what life in the body of Christ is all about: people helping others to become more like Christ. By sharing in fellowship with other Christians, students grow and mature in their own lives, experiencing the blessings that result from following Christ's command to love one another.

Opportunities for this kind of sharing are abundant. Whether talking and praying with a roommate, attending Sing and Share, or participating in various organizations and activities, Christ's love is shared and life is enriched.

"Now the body is not made up of one part but of many. If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it. Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it." (1 Corinthians 12:14, 26-27)

*Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will in all things grow up into him who is the Head, that is,
Christ.*

Allen's Cure For Depression

"The Causes and Cures of Collegiate Depression," "Discipleship in Dating," and "Rock, Stock, and Barrel" were just a few of the titles of Tom Allen's seminars during Spiritual Emphasis Week.

Allen urged students and faculty to allow Christ complete control in various areas of their lives, including depression, dating, and music. During the week, many students made decisions to give Christ total lordship of their lives.

Packed-out evening seminars gave students practical guidelines for spiritual growth. Many went to Tom for private counseling.

Allen, pastor of Pulpit Ministries at Seven Oaks Alliance Church in British Columbia and a well-traveled evangelist, said that a change occurred in his own life during the week: "I felt the Lord leading me to concentrate more on college ministries."

Chapel from old . . . to new

... A place of beauty and reverence. A place where the Northwestern family could come together daily to worship God through the ministry of speakers, music, testimonies and prayer.

We got used to planning our schedules around the two chapel sessions necessary to fit our growing student body. In the spring, we left the majestic marble and stained glass setting for the exciting prospect of united worship at Maranatha Hall.

One tradition ends, another begins.

Another Northwestern First Down!

The grand day of Homecoming was met with rain and cold temperatures. However, the weather did not dampen the spirit of the dedicated fans. Amidst the umbrellas, raincoats, and sheets of plastic, dripping students rose to cheer the football team to victory. The crowd left wet and wild with the joy of victory.

Homecoming 1981 Under the Big Top

Student Senate pronounced Homecoming a week to create a "Carnival of Memories." The festivities, including a concert by Renaissance, a talent show, and a powder puff football game all started with the annual banquet.

Coronation differed from the previous years by a change in setting. A trumpet herald opened the ceremony as the candidates for Miss Northwestern were escorted down the candle-lit aisle of Nazareth Chapel. After the escorts introduced the candidates, Dr. Ericksen announced the students' choice — Karna Johnson, Miss Northwestern 1981.

Another Northwestern "First Down"

Fan support played an important role in this year's football season. At every home game, one could hear the crowd chanting along with announcer Dave Halstengard, "And it's another Northwestern first down!"

The team began with a slow start with 23 of 50 new to the squad. Senior players Jeff Terhark, Greg Madson, Mark Wynthein, and Ken Faffler led the Eagles on to post a 5-3-1 record. The mighty Eagles finished the season by defeating the previously unbeaten Concordia/St. Paul team, which placed the two teams in a tie for the TRCC, Upper Midwest Conference Championship title.

Captains of this year's team were Mark Wynthein, Joe Wilkin, and Ken Faffler.

Striving Together — In Everything

To a Northwestern soccer player, working as a team off the field is as vital as working as a team on the field. This year tight teamwork led the team to District finals in the sixth year of the sport's existence at Northwestern College.

Directed by Coach Dave Olson, the Eagles ended the season with a 10-7 record.

Mike Gunderson and Doug Gulbranson co-captained this year's team. "We had a lot of potential in spite of being a young team," said junior Garry Lloyd, "although at times we had trouble playing up to it."

The team had its share of problems, but as Peter Reid pointed out, "We always seemed to be able to sit down, talk them out, and pray about them. The fans only see one-fourth of what the team really is. The things we learn on the field and with each other are more important than wins and losses."

For the seventh straight year the Eagle Cross Country team has captured the TRCC Conference Championship.

"I find this year's victory more satisfying because I had to virtually rebuild the team from scratch," said Coach Farra. With only two returning team members, the 1981 Eagle runners worked hard to expand the "Dynasty" tradition at NWC.

Doug Huffman led the pack by placing second at the Conference meet. Tom Conklin finished fourth, Gene Westberg fifth, and Brad Gabbert sixth. The team went on to place 12th at the Nationals in Cedarville, Ohio.

Down through the ages, dynasties rise and fall. Let it be known that in ## the Dynasty Continues . . .

Young Team Grows with Experience

The Eagle Volleyball team spiked their way to a 14-21 record in the 1981 season. The Eagle women won a six-team Invitational tournament at Hamline early in September, and wrapped up the season with a second place spot in the first regional Christian College tournament held at Trinity College, Illinois.

Five players returned from the 1980 season to form the leadership nucleus of the young '81 team. Coach Lindman depended on freshmen netters to contribute their skills, rounding out the squad.

"The team's common denominator was the faith that the players shared," said junior Barb Wall. "Devotions and prayer formed a bond between team members — something that's not found at most state colleges."

Sno-Daze!

Looking back at Sno-Daze we all remember the snowball eating contests, and best dressed Minnesotan, and . . . But do we remember the 200 plus high school students that infiltrated our campus for those few short days? We had them in our rooms and interrupting our studies, yet somehow they seemed to put new life back into us by forcing us to remember how it was when we were in high school. How can we forget the Cruz Family who put on a terrific concert for us that weekend? It was the last concert that would be held in tiny Riley Gym . . . but next year . . .

"Antic Spring" and "The Ugly Duckling"

The students of Northwestern were given a refreshing break from the long, cold winter by the Winter one-act plays, "Antic Spring" and "The Ugly Duckling."

These plays brought a smile to many winter weather-beaten faces. "Antic Spring" reminded the students of the approaching season when a time of love, picnics, and ants would soon return.

"The Ugly Duckling," a Cinderella type story, gave hope to the many single, lonely, and beautiful girls at Northwestern that even they may someday have a chance at a handsome prince.

Cagers Take Conference Again

The 1981-82 Eagle Cagers came on strong in the second half of the season. Led by three Twin River All-Conference performers: Brian Miller, Scott Anderson, Paul Hubbard, the Northwestern Eagles won their third consecutive conference championship. The team continued their fine late season play in the tournaments. The Eagles kept moving ahead right up to second place at the National Christian College Athletic Association Division II Tournament where they fell in the championship game to the host college, Baptist Bible of Missouri, 55-50. Point guard, Scott Anderson was chosen as the Most Valuable Player of the tournament.

Senior guard, Brian Miller won the Murchison Award, which is presented to the outstanding Christian Basketball Player of the Nation. The award is based on basketball ability, scholastic achievement, leadership, and Christian commitment.

Matmen Pin First Conference Title

A new awakening came to Northwestern wrestling this year. Fans turned out for and gave the team its best support ever. Proving their skill the Eagle matmen came up with their first conference championship. Under the guiding light of Coach Bruce Bulman, the wrestlers overcame at times tremendous odds and beat their opponents. With many of the wrestlers returning, the Eagles have the capability of a repeat performance next year.

Outstanding performances were given by the whole team! Way to go Eagles!

The Northwestern Band worked hard preparing to minister to sixteen audiences during the 1981-82 school year. Director "Doc O" (David Osterlund) demanded high quality performance and stressed spiritual priorities. Spring tour highlighted the year with concerts scattered throughout northern Minnesota, Winnepeg, South Dakota, southern Minnesota and the homecoming concert in downtown Minneapolis.

Throughout the year prayer and devotions were a vital part of rehearsals. These habits became an important and memorable part of tour. If a member was sick, or nervous about a solo, or perhaps had family members in the audience, the band prayed together about the need. "God unified the band through prayer concerns," said one member. The theme, "God's Love" was effectively portrayed to the audiences because they saw His love in action within their own group.

The year ended with a light hearted "Mighty Lips of Fire" pops concert, using the theme idea of the Academy Award winning movie "Chariots of Fire."

Male Chorus

The Northwestern College Male Chorus emphasizes a ministry of music in churches besides special concert preparation. During the year the male chorus participated in Harvest Sound, Christmas concerts and a chapel service. The ministry with local churches included churches within a radius of 200 miles. This year the Chorus went to Northern Iowa and southwest Minnesota. Spring Break Tour included programs each night and two weekends to Wisconsin, Michigan, Ohio, and Illinois. The tour included 14 programs in 10 days to churches and Christian High Schools.

Under the direction of Cheryl Henry, the Women's Vocal and Handbell Ensemble worked diligently in order to perform their best for the Lord. The daily rehearsals were packed with hard work, devotions, praise and prayer, drawing them closer to the Lord and each other.

Two weekend retreats gave the women a chance to get to know each other by sharing and ministering to one another, playing games, participating in sports, and of course working on music.

Spring break and weekend tours gave the women a chance to share music and testimony with audiences throughout Minnesota, Nebraska, and South Dakota. Loving host families, sightseeing in God's Country, and just being together made this year unforgettable.

Said one member, "1982 taught us what a commitment is all about. Learning how one's decisions, attitudes and reactions can affect others was truly a growing experience. In everything, we grew closer to the Lord and to each other."

Carpenter's Workshop

The Carpenter's Workshop has become a household word here at NWC. This drama troupe has in the past toured area churches, the whole of the United States and has gone to the British Isles. This year the Carpenter's Workshop players are taking their longest tour in their history. During spring quarter they will have toured the United States and this summer will go to Scandinavia and minister to the people there. This will be CW's last year touring for Northwestern College. Mike Gray, their director, will be taking them into a full-time ministry and full-time travel. We wish them God's blessing as they enter into this ministry.

The Student Missionary Fellowship (also known as Global Outreach) is a service to support any Northwestern student who has a burden to serve as a missionary, whether on this continent or overseas. Global Outreach has seen the beginning of the fulfillment of many goals. A few of these goals include: to be more well-known, to be able to support more people, and to set a new attitude towards missions in the minds of the students. "Missions isn't an option," says president Bob Roby. "We all must be missionaries whether it is at home or abroad." (Matthew 28:18-20)

MARANATHA!

On February 19, 1982, the Northwestern student body, faculty, and staff were privileged to dedicate the Marantha Hall/Totino Fine Arts Center for the Lord's honor and glory. All who were in attendance that day felt the power of God on our campus.

1. Benefactor Rose Totino visits with guests on Dedication Day. 2. Students prayerfully dedicate Marantha Hall/Totino Fine Arts Center.

Fiddler on the Roof

"Father, remind us always of the purpose of our work. We pray that Your message will be made clear through this production. Use us, Father, and we know that all the glory belongs to You." This was the daily prayer of director Mike Gray, the cast, and crew of "Fiddler on the Roof."

and after each performance we praised God together in a prayer circle because His message did shine through each character. God's love through one man can change his world, but only if that man's love for God is greater than any other love, even the love for his favorite child. Tradition! Ahh . . . ; It can be bent. But a man who allows his faith to be bent will break. Tevya's faith, though tested severely, was immovable.

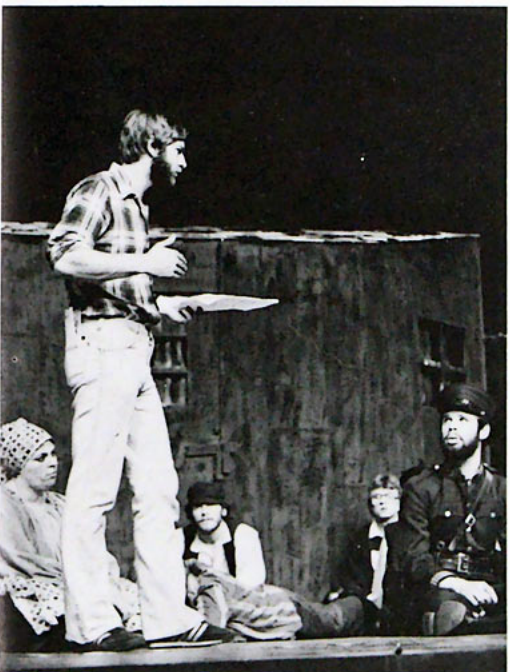

3. Tradition! 4. The Sons! 5. "Fiddler" cast listens intently as Mike Gray directs. 6. Tevya ponders his faith.

Track

Men and Women's track is an up and coming sport at Northwestern. Coach Jim Smith has worked hard with determined athletes to improve their speed and skill in each event. Being an avid runner himself, Coach Smith can easily identify with the athletes he coaches.

These teams cannot boast of a conference championship, nor even of a national title. But, when looking deeper, we see that each team member has either established a new school record or achieved a personal best. That's Northwestern style!

NW Style!

1. Tom Conklin soars like an Eagle in clearing the high jump. 2. Coach Jim Smith gives instruction to an injured athlete. 3. An intent Barb Wall clears another hurdle on her way to victory. 4. Giving 200 percent!!

the "Swinging Eagles"

The Northwestern Baseball Team for the fifth consecutive year finished in second place in the TRCC. Highlights of the season were doubleheader victories over Concordia 11-7 and 16-12 as the Eagles smashed six homeruns and twenty-eight base hits and the seasons final games, a twin victory over Mount Senario 2-0 and 4-1 behind the excellent pitching of Joe Sullivan and Paul Hubbard. Marty Walter, senior catcher, was the Most Valuable Player. Marty Walter, Dan Peterson, and Paul Hubbard were named to the All-Conference Team. Only three seniors graduated this year, thus the 83 squad should again be in the running for the elusive crown.

1. Scott Davidson waits to make a play at second base. 2. The ever ready Micky Peterson fields the ball to make the play for the Eagles. 3. Marty Walter, catcher, has an opponent in the "hot box". 4. Bill Dale, relief pitcher, working on an opposing batter.

Women's Softball

Coached by DelRoy Johnson and Barbara Lindman, the Women's Softball Team won the Boca Raton and Northwestern Invitational Tournaments. For the first time in 10 years, the Softball Team won 20 games, finishing the season with a record of 20-12-1.

closing words . . .

We've come to the end of another year and as I pen this my emotions are varied. For three years now the yearbook has been a very important part of my life. I've had to learn to work with people, but also more importantly to love people, even when the copy's late or the pictures aren't done on time.

I guess you can say that I've gotten an inside view of Northwestern. One that is probably more unique than anyone else's. In my last three years I've grown to truly love Northwestern College. The people here are among the greatest in the world. Looking back, I can only attribute this to the presence of Jesus Christ on this campus.

I thank Sandy, Jim, Robert, Shella, Sara, Gloria, Kathy, Jim, Brian, Natalie, Kelly and Dr. Scofield for sharing this book and this year with me.

"fixing our eyes on Jesus the author and perfecter of our faith . . ."

Hebrews 12:2

Love in Christ,

Kevin B. White
